Stay in control of your details	How did you hear about us?
We owe it to you to make sure your details are only used as you wish.	, ,
 We promise never to sell your details never to sell your details to any other charity or organisation. One of the most effective ways for us to find new Friends, however, is to write to another organisation's supporters from time to time, and to let that organisation write to you. If this is OK with you, please tick here.
As a Friend, you receive a newsletter and information about Friends events and Gallery opportunities. Should you ever want to change how

Payment Information

Becoming a Friend by Direct Debit costs less than if you pay by cheque or credit card, because it costs us less to administer. Your membership simply keeps going, rather than us having to send renewal reminders.
